9. The modalities of the high-level meeting are set out in resolution 66/124. In accordance with that resolution, the high-level meeting will be held under the overall theme “The way forward: a disability-inclusive development agenda towards 2015 and beyond”.

10. The opening plenary meeting will be held in the General Assembly Hall, and will feature statements by the President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General and the Chair of the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, as well as an eminent person actively engaged in disability issues and a representative of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, both of them chosen by the President of the Assembly.

11. The two consecutive informal interactive round tables will also be held in the General Assembly Hall. The President of the General Assembly has invited the Philippines and Spain to co-chair round table 1 and Finland and Tunisia to co-chair round table 2. In accordance with the decision taken by the President of the General Assembly, in consultation with Member States, the theme for round table 1 will be “International and regional cooperation and partnerships for disability-inclusive development” and the theme for round table 2 will be “The post-2015 development agenda and inclusive development for persons with disabilities”. A list of speakers is open for inscription, on a first-come, first-served basis, in room S-3082 (e-mail: poliakova@un.org; telephone: 212 963 5063; fax: 212 963 3783). Delegations are asked to kindly indicate the level of representation at the time of inscription.

There will be no list of speakers for the opening plenary meeting.

16. The two consecutive high-level substantive segments will be held in the Trusteeship Council Chamber and will be chaired by Vice-Presidents of the Assembly.

17. To enable maximum participation within the limited time available, statements in the substantive segments should not exceed three minutes when made in a national capacity and five minutes when made on behalf of groups, on the understanding that this would not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts. A list of speakers is open for inscription, on a first-come, first-served basis, in room S-3063 (e-mail: del-vasto@un.org; telephone: 212 963 0388; fax: 212 963 3783). Delegations are asked to kindly indicate the level of representation at the time of inscription.

18. The President has drawn up a list of representatives of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council that will participate in the high-level meeting. This list was shared with Member States in a letter from the President dated 30 July 2013. There will be a 10-minute time slot at the end of the afternoon substantive segment to allow two representatives of civil society to speak.

19. The President will prepare a summary as the outcome of the high-level meeting, which will be issued as a document of the General Assembly.

Round table 4: International and regional labour mobility and its impact on development

25. To allow for maximum participation within the limited time available, statements in the plenary meetings and the round table discussions will be limited to four minutes, on the understanding that that would not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts.

26. A list of speakers is open for inscription, on a first-come, first-served basis, in room S-3082 (e-mail: poliakova@un.org; telephone: 212 963 5063; fax: 212 963 3783). Delegations are asked to kindly indicate the level of representation at the time of inscription.

General debate

30. As indicated above (sect. I), the general debate of the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly will be held from Tuesday, 24 September, to Wednesday, 2 October 2013. The meetings of the general debate will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m., with the exception of the meeting on the morning of Thursday, 26 September, which will start at 10 a.m., after the opening of the high-level meeting on nuclear disarmament, to be held from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. in the General Assembly Hall.

31. The current list of speakers is available in room S-3082. Any change or exchange of speaking slots among Member States should be communicated in writing to the General Assembly Affairs Branch, room S-3082 (e-mail: poliakova@un.org; telephone: 212 963 5063; fax: 212 963 3783).

32. The theme “The post-2015 development agenda: setting the stage” has been proposed for the general debate at the sixty-eighth session, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 58/126.

33. In keeping with previous practice, a voluntary 15-minute time limit for statements is to be observed in the general debate of the sixty-eighth session.

Statements, documentation and interpretation

34. At the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly, the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management will offer PaperSmart services as an additional service. Delegations wishing to circulate their statements electronically through the PaperSmart services portal should send them at least two hours in advance of delivery to papersmart@un.org or provide copies for scanning and uploading to the portal at the conference officers’ desk located in or outside the meeting room. A minimum of 30 copies of the text should also be submitted by a delegation representative to the receiving area located at the documents counter in front of the General Assembly Hall between 8 a.m. and 9 a.m.

35. Statements made in any of the six official languages of the General Assembly are interpreted into the other official languages. Any speaker may also make a statement in a language other than the official languages. In such cases, in accordance with rule 53 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly, the delegation in question must provide either an interpreter from the non-official into an official language or a written text of the statement in one of the official languages to be read out by a United Nations interpreter. On the basis of this interpretation or the written text which is accepted by the Secretariat as representing the official text of the statement, it will be interpreted into the other official languages by United Nations interpreters. When a written text is provided, the delegation concerned should make available to the interpreter someone who knows the language in which the statement is to be delivered and the official language into which it has been translated, to guide the interpreter through the translated text and to ensure synchronization between the speaker and the interpreter. Detailed arrangements for interpretation from non-official languages, including access by non-United Nations interpreters to the interpreter booths in the General Assembly Hall, must be made in advance through the Meetings Management Section (telephone: 212 963 8114; e-mail: emetsm@un.org). The interpreter or the guide provided by the delegation should be brought by the delegation to the conference officers' desk in front of the General Assembly Hall 30 minutes prior to the delivery of the statement.

36. For the duration of the remainder of the main part of the session, delegations are invited to submit electronic versions of their statements via e-mail to papersmart@un.org. The name of the meeting and the agenda item should be indicated in the heading of the statement and in the subject line of the e-mail. The statements will remain embargoed until their delivery and then posted on the PaperSmart portal (papersmart.unmeetings.org).

37. A print-on-demand service will be made available throughout the session, from which delegates will be able to request a hard copy at the documents distribution counter located outside the General Assembly Hall or by clicking on the print-on-demand option on the PaperSmart portal. Delegates will be able to e-mail any document or statement to themselves from the portal. All official documents will also be available electronically in all official languages on the Official Document System, as well as via the PaperSmart portal (papersmart.unmeetings.org). No login will be required to access the portal.

38. Delegations and participants are encouraged to bring their laptops, tablets or other mobile devices to the meetings in order to access information and documents.

VI. Event hosted by the Secretary-General

Millennium Development Goal success: accelerating action and partnering for impact

45. An event entitled “Millennium Development Goal success: accelerating action and partnering for impact” will be held on Monday, 23 September 2013, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., in the Trusteeship Council Chamber.

46. The aim of the high-level forum will be to catalyse and accelerate further action to achieve the Millennium Development Goals and enrich the deliberations of the General Assembly on 24 and 25 September and beyond. The event will focus on concrete examples of scaling up success and identifying opportunities for more. The emphasis will be on the “how” — bringing together examples from partnerships across the spectrum of the Millennium Development Goals, including the Secretary-General’s multi-stakeholder initiatives and movements, such as “Every woman, every child”, Sustainable Energy for All, Education First, the Zero Hunger Challenge and the Call to Action on Sanitation.

47. During the forum, Heads of State and Government, chief executive officers from the business sector, philanthropists and civil society leaders, as well as heads of United Nations agencies, funds and programmes and other international organizations, will have an opportunity to discuss the means of implementation that will match ambitions with concrete mechanisms and resources. The Secretary-General will provide opening remarks at the forum, which will be followed by contributions from a number of panellists. The President of the General Assembly and the Deputy Secretary-General will provide concluding remarks.

48. Additional enquiries about the forum can be directed to the Executive Office of the Secretary-General (Silva Bonacito, telephone: 917 367 3556; e-mail: bonacito@un.org).

VII. List of delegations

49. A provisional list of delegations to the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly will be available on the Protocol and Liaison Service website (www.un.int/protocol) at the beginning of the general debate. Missions are requested kindly to submit a comprehensive official delegation list, including the functional titles and affiliations of each member, to the Chief of Protocol, room S-0201 (fax: 212 963 1921), not later than 22 November 2013. In order to avoid confusion, any changes to the original list should be sent separately, bearing in mind that such changes should not be incorporated into the list previously submitted to the Protocol and Liaison Service. Missions are encouraged to transmit, in MS Word, their comprehensive lists of delegations, first electronically to sutliff@un.org, followed by a signed copy, to be delivered to the Protocol and Liaison Service. A final comprehensive list of delegations to the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly will be available on the Protocol and Liaison Service website towards the end of December 2013.

50. Each delegation shall consist of not more than five representatives, and five alternate representatives and as many advisers and experts as may be required (rule 25 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly). With the exception of Heads of State or Government and Vice-Presidents, Crown Princes or Princesses and Ministers for Foreign Affairs, who will be listed as heads of delegation during their presence at the session, all other heads of delegation shall be counted as one of the five representatives. If the five representatives and five alternate representatives are not specified, as required by the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, the first 10 members of the delegation in the order of their listing will be considered as representatives and alternate representatives, for the purpose of issuing the lists of delegations. The names of aides de camp, interpreters, physicians, media and security personnel accompanying a Head of State or Government should not be included in the official list of delegations.

VIII. Protocol accreditation and access arrangements for Member States, observers, intergovernmental organizations and the specialized agencies

Accreditation

51. Accreditation of official delegations and members of the parties of Heads of State or Government, Vice-Presidents and Crown Princes or Princesses will be carried out by the Protocol and Liaison Service. Missions/offices are required to submit their accreditation requests by using the new online system, “eAccreditation”, via the website at <https://eaccreditation.un.int>. The Protocol Office has communicated to all missions/offices in New York by means of a note verbale dated 12 July 2013 providing details of the official launch of the new online accreditation system, together with “Guidelines on eAccreditation” and “Frequently Asked Questions”. The information can also be found on the Protocol and Liaison Service website (www.un.int/protocol). For the submission of requests for grounds and VIP passes, missions/offices should follow the procedure referred to in the guidelines.

52. Heads of State or Government, Vice-Presidents, Crown Princes or Princesses and their spouses will be offered VIP passes without photographs. Deputy Prime Ministers, Cabinet ministers and their spouses will be provided with VIP passes with photographs.

53. The working hours of the accreditation unit (telephone: 212 963 7181) in the Protocol and Liaison Service in the days prior to and during the high-level meetings and the general debate will be posted on the Protocol and Liaison Service website and at the entry of the Protocol Office starting on Tuesday, 3 September 2013.

54. During the high-level meetings and the general debate of the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly, from 23 September to 4 October 2013, access to the General Assembly Hall and restricted areas will require a regular delegate’s pass plus a secondary colour-coded access card. The access cards are transferable strictly among members of a delegation. For that purpose, the Protocol and Liaison Service will proceed as follows:

(a) Every Permanent Mission will be issued four cards of one colour for access to the General Assembly Hall in the North Lawn Building and four cards of a different colour for access to the North Lawn Building lobby. These cards will be valid for the entire period of the high-level meetings and the general debate of the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly, from 23 September to 4 October 2013;

(c) Access cards, if required, will be issued to representatives of Member States, observers, intergovernmental organizations and specialized agencies participating in other closed/restricted high-level meetings for access to conference rooms in the North Lawn Building and the Conference Building.

55. Colour-coded access cards for the high-level meetings and the general debate will be ready for collection at the Protocol and Liaison Service starting on Friday, 20 September 2013, after 10 a.m.

56. Seats will be reserved in a VIP area for spouses of the Heads of State or Government, Vice-Presidents, Crown Princes or Princesses participating in the general debate, provided that the Chief of Protocol is notified in advance of their attendance. In addition, depending on availability, a limited number of seats will be reserved for guests of delegations in a reserved section (up to eight seats) of the General Assembly Hall during the address of the head of delegation at the plenary meeting. Access to these areas will require a special courtesy ticket distributed by the Protocol and Liaison Service. To reserve seats in the VIP area for spouses and in the reserved section for guests of delegations in the General Assembly Hall, a written request specifying the names and titles of all attendees (including, where relevant, the spouse of the dignitary speaking) must be delivered to the Chief of Protocol in room S-0201 or faxed to 212 963 1921 at least one week in advance of the address. #### Access for members of the information media

74. Members of the media (both resident correspondents with equipment and non-resident correspondents with or without equipment) who wish to enter the General Assembly Hall in the North Lawn Building must use the 46th Street media entrance with a grounds pass or proper documentation for accreditation. Access to the media tent will be gained by using the ramp for disabled persons on the left side of the 46th Street entrance. Following the screening process, personnel who need media accreditation will be required to proceed to the media accreditation tent. Media personnel who wish to proceed to the third floor media liaison desk in the General Assembly Building will be required to use the ramp located on the east side of the General Assembly Building and the staircase within the neck area to the third floor. Those media personnel who wish to proceed to the Media Centre (Conference Room 1, North Lawn Building) following the screening process will proceed from the tent area across the plaza and use the metal staircase down to the ground floor, passing through the south side doors to the rear entrance of Conference Room 1. Video crews accompanying resident and non-resident correspondents, as well as all categories of temporary correspondents, will use only the 46th Street entrance, where they and their equipment will be subject to security screening.

75. Members of the media must be escorted by the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit at all times in the North Lawn Building and other restricted areas.

Access to restricted areas

76. In accordance with the established procedures, please note that the areas in and around the General Assembly Hall (North Lawn Building) is reserved for members of delegations and staff who are conducting official business. In all cases, valid United Nations building passes will be required. Owing to the space constraints within the General Assembly Hall, members of delegations are requested kindly not to congregate within that area. Room 4, on the first floor of the North Lawn Building, has been designated as the overflow room for such activities. Members of non-governmental organizations will not be allowed to gain access to the restricted areas — their access to meetings at Headquarters will be honoured upon verification of a valid United Nations building pass and an appropriate ticket issued for the meeting(s) on the day in question.

Admission of persons not affiliated with the United Nations

77. For the period of the general debate and the high-level meetings, the information and reception desk established within the Secretariat Building lobby will be relocated to the UNITAR Building, on the corner of First Avenue at 45th Street. Access to the desk can be gained through the south side entrance of the building on 45th Street. Given the extent of security activities on First Avenue, it will be the responsibility of each staff member to meet his or her guests at the information desk and to ensure that they are accompanied at all times. Guests will not be permitted to enter the restricted areas at any time.

Guided tours

78. Regular guided tours will be suspended from 4 p.m. on Sunday, 22 September, until the close of business on Friday, 4 October. On Saturday, 5 October, at 9 a.m., guided tours will resume and the building will reopen to the public.

Motorcade drop-off

79. Motorcades escorted to the Secretariat Building will be authorized to enter the United Nations premises at the 43rd Street and First Avenue vehicular entrance and drop off their passengers at the Secretariat entrance. Thereafter, they will be required to exit the premises through the 43rd Street and First Avenue gate. All authorized motorcades will be allowed to drop off at the 47th Street and First Avenue entrance to the North Lawn Building. Both escorted and unescorted motorcades dropping off delegation members at the 47th Street and First Avenue entrance are required to be in possession of the requisite United Nations-issued grounds pass in order to gain access to the premises. Furthermore, it is important to note that a valid grounds pass and an authorized United Nations decal (issued by the Garage Administration) will be required at the 46th Street and Second Avenue vehicle checkpoint prior to the granting of such access.

Parking

80. From Monday to Friday, vehicles other than those belonging to the heads of delegation of the Permanent Missions or Observer Missions to the United Nations will be permitted access to enter the garage through the 48th Street entrance. Upon the conclusion of their official activity, they may depart through the 43rd Street exit. The 48th Street and 43rd Street entrances will be operational on a 24-hour basis. Traffic lanes within the third basement service drive and roadways in the garage must be kept free of stationary vehicles at all times. Vehicles left in that area will be subject to towing.

81. All vehicles entering Headquarters premises will be subject to search. Thus, it is highly recommended that members limit the contents inside their vehicles in order to expedite the physical security clearances.

82. Bicycles and other non-motorized means of transport into Headquarters premises will also be subject to search.

XIV. Arrangements for meetings

Facilities

83. For bilateral meetings, a limited number of temporary booths, with a maximum capacity of eight participants, will be available in the North Lawn Building and in the Conference Building.

Reservation system

84. An electronic reservation system will be activated through e-Meets 2.0 (icms.un.org) on 26 August 2013, in order to provide equitable and efficient use of the facilities. Delegations are requested to submit reservations electronically through e-Meets by accessing icms.un.org, clicking on bilateral requests and logging in with the username and password of their Permanent Mission. The date and time and the name of the other delegation participating in the bilateral meeting should be specified in the request. Reservations will be accepted for periods of 20 minutes, on the hour and half hour. To prevent double bookings, only the delegations initiating the bilateral meeting(s) should submit the request.

85. Information about room assignments will be provided one day prior to the meeting. Depending on the programme, every effort will be made to keep a delegation's consecutive appointments in the same room. Late requests will be accepted until 6 p.m. on the day prior to the meeting and every effort will be made to assign a booth based on the availability of space at that time. Delegations requiring further information regarding bilateral requests should send their questions or enquiries to bilats-msu@un.org.

XV. 2013 treaty event

86. It is recalled that the Secretary-General, in a letter dated 19 April 2013, invited Heads of State or Government to consider signing and ratifying or acceding to multilateral treaties deposited with him during the general debate of the sixty-eighth session of the General Assembly.

87. The treaty event will be held from 24 to 26 September and from 30 September to 1 October 2013 in the treaty-signing area in the North Lawn Building (designated area on the first floor). Appointments for signature, ratification or accession should be arranged well in advance with the Treaty Section (telephone: 212 963 5047). Those countries intending to ratify and/or accede to a convention or treaty must submit copies of their instruments to the Treaty Section for review by 6 September 2013. Those countries intending to sign a convention or treaty must submit copies of their full powers to the Treaty Section for review by 6 September 2013. It should be noted that Heads of State or Government and Ministers for Foreign Affairs do not require full powers to sign. Copies of instruments and full powers may be faxed to the Treaty Section at 212 963 3693.

88. Information relating to the treaty event, including the letter of invitation from the Secretary-General, the annual publication on treaties entitled Towards Universal Participation and Implementation, a list of all multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General and procedural information can be obtained from the United Nations Treaty Collection website (<http://treaties.un.org>).

89. In addition to the Head of State or Government or Minister for Foreign Affairs, two individuals per delegation will be permitted at the event. It should be noted that it is the responsibility of the delegation to escort the representative who will be undertaking the relevant treaty action to the venue five minutes prior to the scheduled appointment. A protocol officer will greet and escort dignitaries (Head of State or Government/Vice-President/Crown Prince or Princess) from the escalators in the main hall.

90. It should also be noted that, in order to gain access to the premises during the 2013 treaty event, national media must have previously obtained proper media accreditation from the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit.

91. Each delegation should designate an individual as a contact person for the purposes of this event.

XVI. Media arrangements and services

92. Media representatives with a valid United Nations grounds pass will be allowed to cover the general debate and other high-level meetings without additional accreditation.

93. All others who do not have a valid pass must apply for accreditation by Wednesday, 11 September 2013. They must also fill out an online media registration form (available at www.un.org/en/media/accreditation/form). Two pieces of photo identification (such as a passport, a driver's licence or State ID) are also required when passes are picked up.

94. All members of the media accompanying Heads of State or Government or heads of delegation can obtain accreditation by having the Permanent Mission concerned submit a letter listing the names of the media representatives with their functional titles and affiliation, either by fax (212 963 4642) or by e-mail (malu@un.org) to the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit.
